

SEEKING INFORMATION

UNKNOWN SUSPECT

Explosion at The Cheesecake Factory Restaurant
Pasadena, California
February 2, 2017

DESCRIPTION

Age: Approximately 30 years old

Height: Approximately 6'0"

Weight: Approximately 160 pounds

Build: Thin

Sex: Male

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $20,000 for information leading the arrest of the person(s) responsible for this explosion.

REMARKS

The unknown suspect had a dark, full, thick beard with a mustache, and wore all-black clothing to include a black "beanie"-style hat with flaps. He walks with an unusual gait - it appears his feet turn inward when he walks.

DETAILS

The FBI and the Pasadena, California, Police Department are asking for the public's assistance in identifying a man who is believed to be responsible for an explosion that occurred at The Cheesecake Factory on February 2, 2017.

At approximately 6:08 p.m. on February 2, 2017, Pasadena Police responded to a call of an explosion at a busy The Cheesecake Factory restaurant in Pasadena, California. After evacuating the restaurant, officers located a homemade pyrotechnic device that had been detonated. No customers or employees were injured during the incident.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Download

Anyone with information concerning this explosion should call the FBI at 1-800-CALL-FBI (1-800-225-5324). You may also contact the Pasadena Police Department at (626) 744-4241. Information provided to law enforcement will be treated confidentially.

You may also contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.

Field Office: Los Angeles